

Tour Name: Memorial Day Weekend Festival Experience

Tour Length: Three days, two nights

Activity Level: Light-Active

Join us for a three-day, fun filled Memorial weekend celebration. See the best Oklahoma has to offer with a weekend full of events and festivals in Oklahoma City and Chickasaw Country. The Artesian Arts Festival in Sulphur, OK is a Native American Art Festival showcasing over 90 premier Native artists from across the country. Next join us in Tishomingo, OK to enjoy a tour of the Chickasaw Nation Capitol Building and Council House Museum. On day two, enjoy learning about culture and western history at the Annual Chuck Wagon Festival at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City. The museum will be showcasing chuck wagon food samples, artisan demonstrations, leather stamping with the Oklahoma Chisholm Trail Leather Guild and much more. Our final stop on day three we will honor America's Heroes with a special Memorial Day afternoon of racing, food and music at Remington Park in Oklahoma City.
